Orientations

Tour of Services

This self-guided tour at www.tourworksource.com provides an introduction to WorkSource.

Re-Employment Orientation

Every Wednesday 1:15 pm and every Thursday 8:15 am and 1:15 pm (2 hours)

This orientation provides an excellent introduction to job search resources, including go2worksource.com, the WorkSource Career Center, the Job Hunter workshop series, and other employment and training services. All customers are welcome to attend this orientation.

No eligibility requirements - all customers may attend.

Workforce Resources Orientation

Every Monday - alternating times 10:30 am or 3:00 pm (1 hour)

If you are a low-income youth (16-21) or an adult (22+) seeking employment services or training opportunities (GED, high school completion or short-term training), this orientation provides information on eligibility requirements, describes the application process and available job or training opportunities.

Low-income youths and adults seeking employment and training assistance.

Dislocated Worker Orientation

Every Thursday 8:30 am (2 hours)

You are "dislocated" when you lose your job and are unlikely to return to that occupation or industry due to a plant closure, mass layoff, foreign competition, or lack of demand for your skills. This orientation provides information on eligibility requirements, describes the application process and available job or training opportunities. Formerly self-employed people, displaced homemakers or other unemployed individuals may also be eligible.

Laid-off youths, adults, displaced homemakers, or formerly self-employed individuals.

Senior Employment Connection

Every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month, 5:00-7:00pm (2 hours)

For Job Seekers 55 years or over interested in additional support locating employment opportunities. Friendly introduction to job search technology, resume assistance, networking, and access to the WorkSource Career Center. This orientation provides information on available training for those who meet eligibility requirements.

Seniors 55+ casual, relaxed gatherings focused on employment and training issues for the older worker

Job Corps Orientation

Every 1st Tuesday of the month, 2:00-4:00pm (2 hours)

For young people ready willing and able to participate in an educational environment, Job Corps provides an opportunity to earn a GED and/or high school diploma, a choice of over 30 vocational trades, basic medical and dental care, a modest living allowance and the chance to develop stronger academic, vocational and life skills. This orientation includes a video presentation, question and answer session and the admission process.
